

THE WORLD TODAY

✓ Former CIA head Allen Dulles said in a New York TV interview that there was no reason for spy ships like the USS Pueblo to violate territorial waters. He said "it is very important to get the type of intelligence that a ship like the Pueblo can gather. Therefore, it was reasonable that it should be in that general area in order to carry out its mission."

CPYRGHT